

Mission Statement : What we do

The Aphasia Institute is an internationally recognized Canadian resource that works in partnership with communities and others to break down language barriers, build communication ramps and rebuild lives for those affected by aphasia.

